

JKB
DETENTION OF STUDENTS

Detention of students as a disciplinary measure is acceptable, providing the following guidelines are adhered to:

- a) Students detained as a disciplinary measure at recess must be given a short break just prior to or following the recess.
- b) Students must be supervised while serving their detention.
- c) Transported students must not be detained at the end of the school day unless arrangements have been made for their transportation home.
- d) Students in kindergarten through grade six must be given a midday intermission of at least forty-five minutes.
